

Ceanothus oliganthus

Common Name: Hairy Ceanothus

SHRUB - evergreen.

To 9' high. Tree-like in growth.

Leaves dark green above, hairy and lighter on under surface.

Flowers deep blue to purple - spring.

Stems warty or smooth and do not change color.

Native habitat: dry shrubby slopes below 4,000' - north and south Coastal Range, Transverse Range and Peninsular Range.

Full sun or part shade.

