

Cornus occidentalis

Western or Red Stem Dogwood

SHRUB - deciduous.

12' high, 10' spread. Open growth.

Large oval green leaves. When leaves fall can see attractive red bark.

Showy white flowers clusters - spring.

Native habitat: Moist areas below 2500' - California to Alaska and Montana.

Part shade to shade.

Water 4 x /month to keep soil moist.

Useful bordering lawns or along a stream.

Inland leaves turn red, yellow, pink in fall.

