

Arctostaphylos glandulosa : Eastwood Manzanita

Note:

Photos of Arctostaphylos glandulosa var. adamsii, which may differ slightly in appearance and features.

SHRUB, evergreen.
To 3' high, spreading to 7'.
Leaves light, silvery green.
Flowers white — January to April.
Smooth red stems.

Native habitat: chaparral, conifer forest, 5000' to 7000' — Southwest California to Baja California.

Full sun.
Little water needed once established.

Tolerates deer.
Attracts hummingbirds.
Berries edible.

Photographs courtesy of San Diego Natural History Museum

