

Corethrogyne filaginifolia var. linifolia Del Mar Sand Aster

Photographs by Margaret L. Fillius

PERENNIAL SUBSHRUB

1–2 feet high. Erect.

Narrow leaves.

Flower heads pink to purple above greenish involucre up to 20 flowers on single stalk—June to December.

Native habitat: coastal sage scrub, coastal strand below 1,000' — central to southern California.

Full sun.

Good drainage. Little summer water.

RARE - CNPS List 1B.1

(Rare, threatened or endangered in California and elsewhere.

Seriously endangered in California).

