

Diplacus aridus

Low Bush Monkeyflower

Photographs by Vince Scheidt

PERENNIAL SHRUB/SUBSHRUB

Height 12"

Stems and leaves glabrous, leaves toothed, ovate to lanceolate.
Flowers pale yellow, 1-2", lobes entire.

Native Habitat: Southeast peninsular ranges into central Baja California, 2000-3500', crevices in boulders or rocky outcrops.

Full to partial sun
Good drainage
Low water use. May tolerate monthly watering.

Uncommon in horticultural use.

RARE - CNPS 4.3

Limited distribution or infrequent in California

Not very threatened in California, less 20% of occurrences threatened

Plants from cultivated stock/origin; do NOT use for restoration purposes or near native populations.

