

Erigeron glaucus 'Arthur Menzies'
Compact Beach Aster

HERBACEOUS PERENNIAL - evergreen.
1' high, 2' spread. Very compact form.
Blue-green leaves, basal in clumps.
Pale violet to lavender flowers - spring to summer.

Horticultural selection E. glaucus: selected by Wayne Roderick, named for former horticulturist at Golden Gate Park and introduced by Leonard Coates Nsy in 1977.

Full sun to part shade.
Water 2 - 4 /month.

Good small-scale groundcover.

