

Festuca idahoensis Idaho Fescue

Use for 'Siskiyou Blue' cultivar

Photograph by Keir Morse

Photograph by Aaron Arthur

PERENNIAL GRASS

1' high, 1-2' wide

Fast growing, densely clumped bunchgrass.
Leaves green to chalky blue or blue-gray.
Flowers in summer.

Siskiyou Blue cultivar is a blue-gray selection

Native Habitat: dry, open or shady places, northwest N. America south to central California, < 6000'.

Full sun to partial shade.
Wide variety of soils and drainage.
Drought tolerant once established.
Water 0-1x/month in summer.

Summer dormant.
Can be mowed high after flowering.
Cold tolerant to -10F.

