

Use for Gambelia juncea
'Punta Banda'

Gambelia (Galvezia juncea) Baja Bush-snapdragon

WOODY SUBSHRUB - evergreen.
3' high, 3' spread.
Much branched. Slender stems erect or spreading.
Small, light green leaves glabrous
and glaucous.
Red flowers - spring to summer.

Native habitat: coastal sage scrub,
scrub - hillsides along arroyos
and occasionally on plains.
Baja California endemic.

Full sun to part shade.
Water 2 x /month.

Attractive to butterflies and hummingbirds.
Will cascade over a wall.

Photographs by Margaret L. Fillius

USE AS A GUIDE ONLY – GROWTH CHARACTERISTICS
MAY BE QUITE DIFFERENT BETWEEN SPECIES AND THEIR CULTIVARS.

