

Gilia tricolor
Bird's Eyes

Photograph by Margaret L. Fillius

ANNUAL

4 - 15" high.

Leaves hairy on upper surfaces.

Flower blue-violet at tip, paler below with purple spots below lobes - spring.

Native habitat: open grassland, hills, valleys, North Coast Ranges, Sierra Nevada foothills, South Coast Ranges
- below 4000'

Full sun to part shade.

Good in mixed annuals.

Attracts butterflies and other insects.

