

Lupinus albifrons
Silver Bush Lupine

PERENNIAL, evergreen.

To 5' high, 2' spread.

Leaves are silver colored with feathery texture.

Flowers are light blue to violet on a 3 - 12 inch long stalk -
Spring.

Native habitat: Dry slopes and flats below 5000' -
Southern Oregon to Los Angeles County; Sierra Nevada

Full sun.

Frost tolerant.

Best in nutrient poor, well drained soil.

Drought tolerant but will tolerate some water.

Good as an ornamental plant.

Butterflies and other insects attracted to flowers.

Deer resistant.

