

Malacothamnus palmeri 'Hanging Valley' Arroyo Seco Bush Mallow

MEDIUM SHRUB — evergreen.

6' high.

The gray-green leaves are broadly lobed.

Long stalks with many 1" wide pink flowers — May to August.

Selection is from Monterey County.

Native habitat: coastal sage scrub, chaparral — interior valley foothills <3000'

Full sun to part shade. Frost resistant.

Water 1 x /month.

Useful on banks and other exposed sites. Use in mixed plantings.

Tough and adaptable.

Attracts hummingbirds and butterflies.

