

Nemophila maculata
Five Spot

ANNUAL

6 - 12" high.

Leaves lobed, 1" long.

Flowers bowl-shaped, white with purple veins and purple spot on petal tips - Spring.

Native habitat: slopes of valley grassland, foothill woodland and pine and fir forest; Sierra Nevada, Sacramento Valley to Santa Barbara - 0 - 9000'

Full sun to part shade.

Tolerates alkaline and sandy soils.

Attracts bees.

