

Perityle incana

Guadalupe Island Rock Aster

SUBSHRUB

2-3' high, 3'+ spread. Woody.
Silver-gray foliage.
Yellow bloom covers bush in summer.

Native Habitat: chaparral, bluffs, hills, canyons.
Low elevations - endemic to Guadalupe
Island.

Photograph by Jon Rebman iNaturalist

Full sun to part shade.
Well drained soil.
Frost sensitive.
Water 1 - 2x / month once established.

Dependable.
Stays more compact with tip pruning.

Photograph by Matt Guilliams iNaturalist

