

Phacelia tanacetifolia
Lacy Phacelia

ANNUAL

To 4' high.

Leaves toothed, oval.

Blue and lavender flowers in a coiled, hairy cyme

- March - May.

Native habitat: open areas, sandy or stony slopes - throughout California other than north, northeast and southeast, to Arizona.

Full sun to part shade.

Will flower longer with some water.

Attracts hoverflies which eat aphids and other pests.

