

Prosopis glandulosa
Mesquite

SHRUB/SMALL TREE - deciduous.

6 to 15' high, often wider at the crown than plant is tall.

Leaves have 7 - 17 leaflets.

Flowers are yellow, in a spike-like formation - April to August.

Native habitat: grasslands, alkali flats, washes, mesas, bottom lands below 5000' - San Joaquin Valley, Peninsular Ranges, Desert.

Full sun. Frost tolerant.

Will tolerate poor, sandy soil.

Good inland, especially in desert.

