

Rhus lentii

Pink-flowered Sumac

SHRUB - evergreen.

4 - 8' high, 8' spread.

Rounded, dense.

Maroon branchlets.

Leaves silver-green.

Many pink flowers - February to March.

Large berries.

Native habitat: maritime desert; bluffs, canyons, low elevations
- endemic to Cedros Island and the western Vizcaino desert
in Baja California.

Full sun.

Water ~1 x / month once established.

