

Anemopsis californica

Yerba Mansa

HERBACEOUS PERENNIAL
8" to 1' tall, up to 5' spread.
Creeping root stalks, long bright red runners.
Rounded basal leaves on long stalks.
Beautiful large white creamy flowers - May to July.

Native habitat: Grows in many plant communities below 6500' throughout California.
Often found in areas with available moisture or a high water table.

Part shade to full shade.
Water generously.

Excellent groundcover. Can be used as turf substitute if not trampled.
Tolerates alkaline soil.
Plant with Eleocharis species, Satureja species or Iris species.

Photographs by Margaret L. Fillius

