

Aster ascendens
San Gabriel Aster

PERENNIAL SUBSHRUB

To nearly 2' high, from elongate rhizomes.

Leaves narrow to 5" long.

Violet flowers in open inflorescence.

Native habitat: meadows and disturbed areas, 1500-6000 feet—interior southern California mountains to eastern Sierra Nevada and beyond.

Prefers sun and regular water.

Good in borders.

