

Calystegia macrostegia California Morning Glory

Photographs by Margaret L. Fillius

PERENNIAL VINE - deciduous

Stems to 12' long.

Leaves triangular.

Flowers white with pink-purple areas - March to August.

Native habitat: Grows from coast to mountans below 3000' - from central Californian coast to Baja California.

Full sun or part shade.

Tolerates poor soil and will grow in rocky areas.

Drought tolerant.

Great for restoration or on slopes.

