

Juglans californica

California Black Walnut

SHRUB / TREE - deciduous.

8 to 25' high, 20+' spread. Usually 1 to 5 trunks.

Leaves have 11 to 19 oval leaflets.

Flowers inconspicuous. Fruit is grooved woody nut.

Long-lived.

Native habitat: Slopes, canyons, valleys below 3000' - From north inner coast range to south coast, and inland to Sacramento area.

Full sun to part shade. Frost resistant.

Does well in poor soils. Tolerates heat.

Water 1 to 2 x /month.

