

Clinopodium chandleri

San Diego Savory

Photographs by Keir Morse

PERENNIAL SHRUB

1.5' high, 3' wide, spreading, evergreen.
Fragrant member of mint family, slow to moderate growth.
White flowers Mar - July.

Native Habitat: Rocky slopes, chaparral in Peninsular Range of Orange County and San Diego into Baja Ca. Elev. 1500' - 3500'

Full sun to partial shade
Well-drained soil.
Low water use, but better with regular water.
1x-2x/month in summer.

RARE - CNPS List 1B.2
Rare or endangered in California and elsewhere
.2: Fairly endangered in California

